BEFORE (CURRENT DESKTOP LAYOUT)

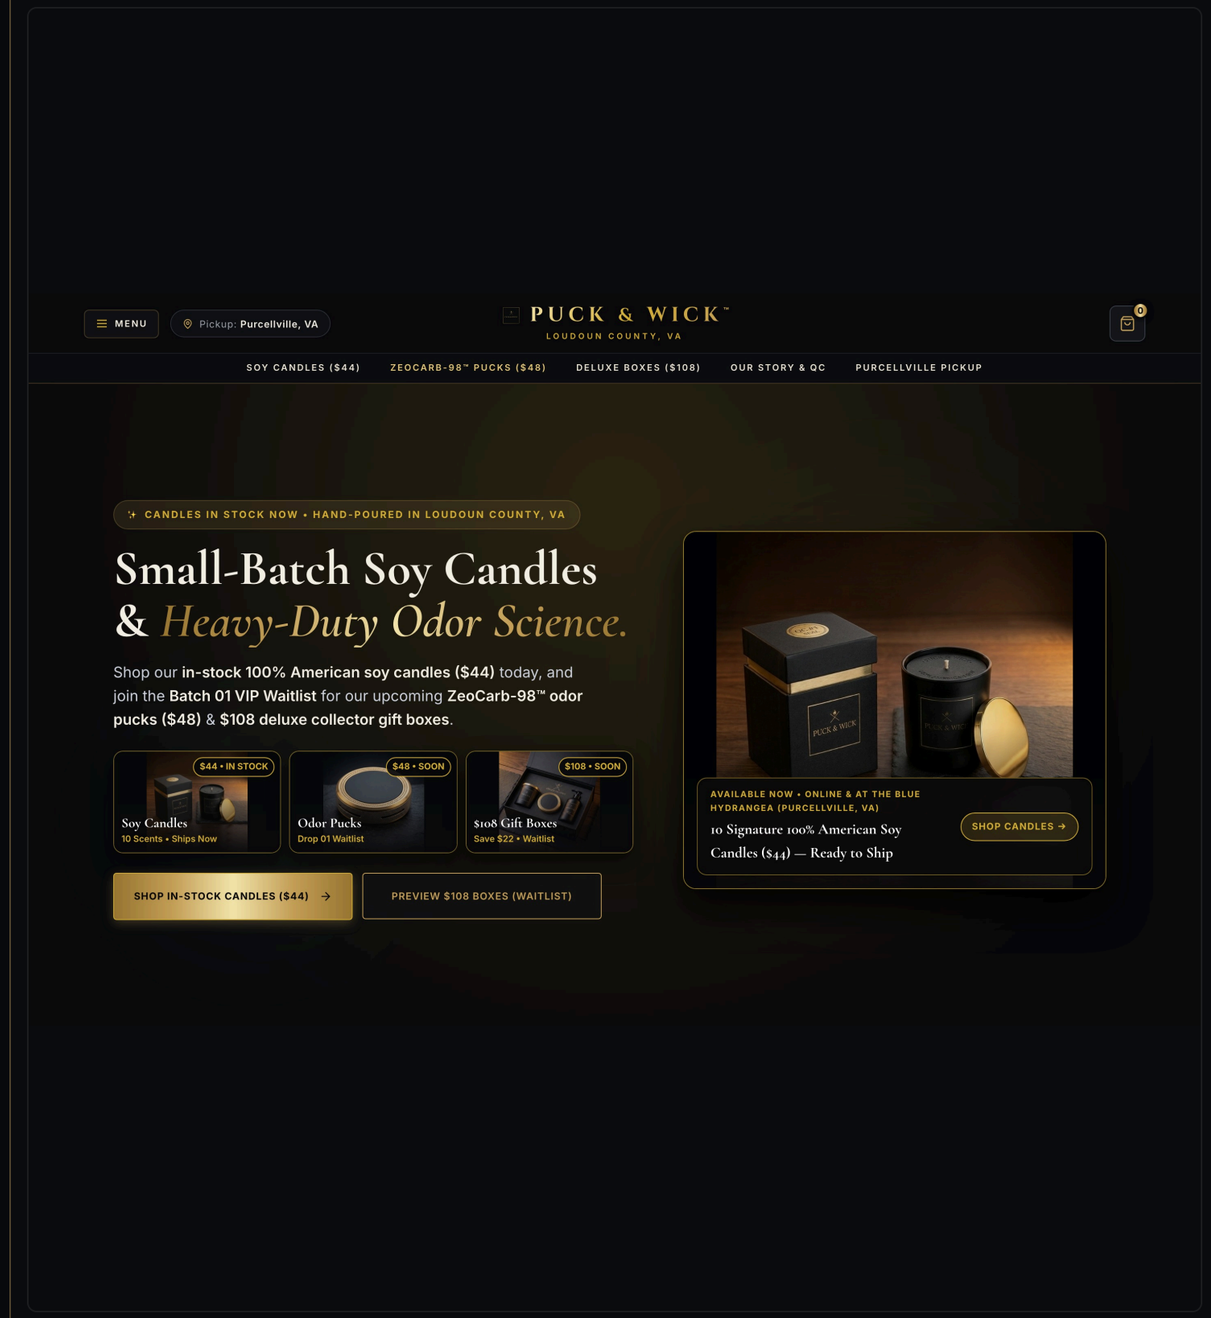

CURRENT

Left-Aligned Logo + Single-Row Nav: Brand lockup sits on the far left corner; navigation links sit in the center on the same horizontal row.

AFTER — OPTION A: CENTERED "PUCK & WICK" + "LOUDOUN COUNTY, VA"

JO MALONE STYLE

PAGE 2 OF 3 • DESKTOP "USA" SUBTEXT vs. SMART DISAPPEARING MENU BAR ON SCROLL

COMPARE SUBTEXT OPTIONS & SCROLL BEHAVIOR

AFTER — OPTION B: CENTERED "PUCK & WICK" + "USA"

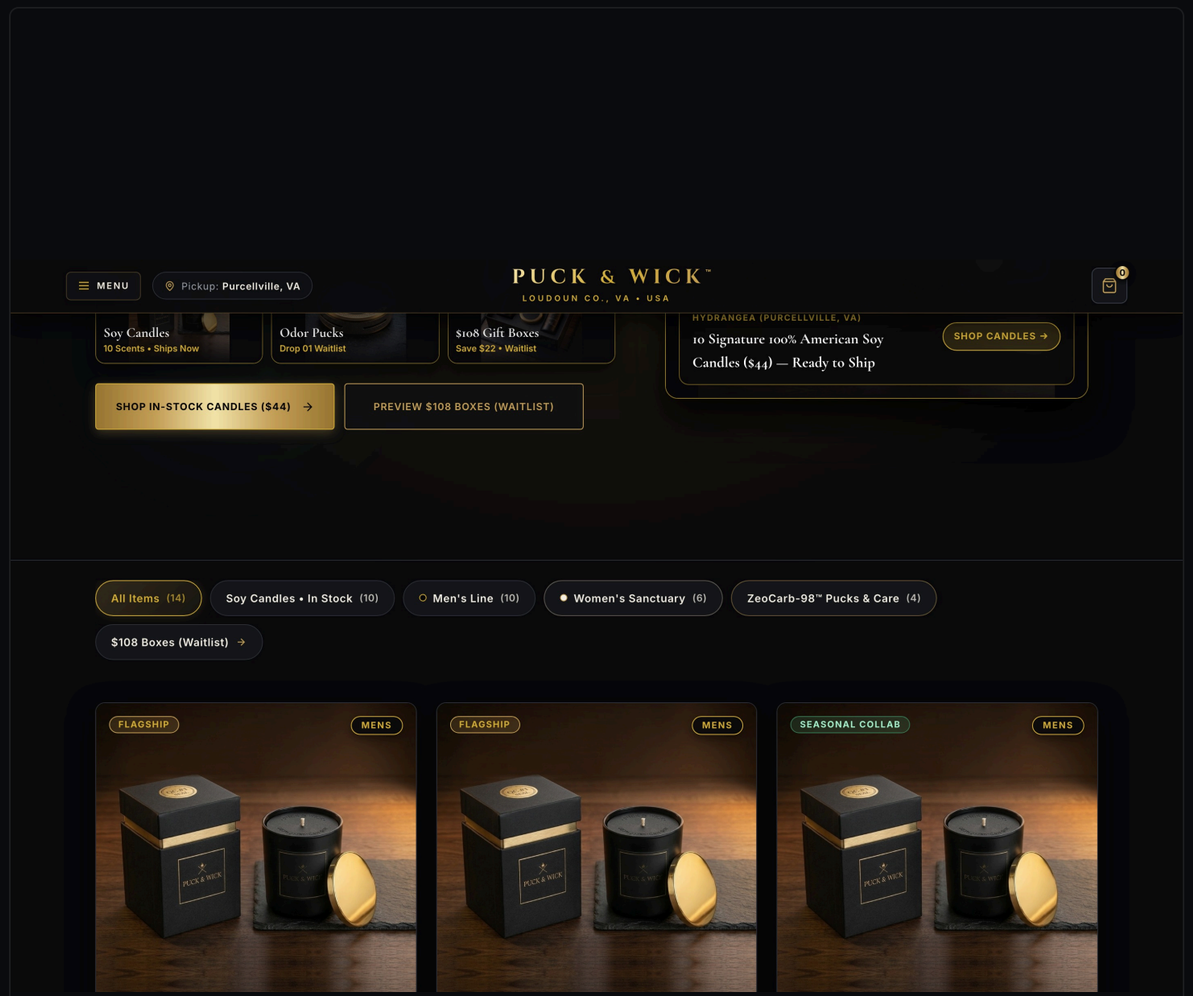

MINIMALIST "USA"

Ultra-Minimalist "USA" Subtext: Gives an international luxury house feel (like "PARIS" or "LONDON"), though it loses the local Virginia / Blue Hydrangea boutique connection at first glance.

AFTER — OPTION C: HYBRID "LOUDOUN CO., VA • USA" + DISAPPEARING MENU BAR ON SCROLL

RECOMMENDED

Smart Disappearing Lower Bar: When scrolling down through the candles, the lower category bar smoothly tucks away (saving 40px of vertical screen space), and reappears the instant the shopper scrolls up!
